Inspiring and connecting through the power of young art – people from society, economy, education, science, religion, media...

The dynamic of creativity

Eva Weissenbacher, Kunsthilfe Salzburg, Eriwan 2014

Why is the power of young art so precious?

Because they approach problems of our time in a creative way

Because they can deal with the challenge of the future through fantasie and inspiration

Because they reach many people through music, dance, theatre, literature, fine art...

Because they conciliate values like faith, hope, love, humanity

Why is the power of faith so precious?

Because it gives security to the world

Because it opens the view to the essential

Because it inspires to confidence to the future

Because faith creates bridges between the people

Because it gives life tendency and meaning

Values and intermediation

The creative power of the art and the spiritual power of the religion like the Christianity can contribute together, to develop the inner treasure of human being,
values, talents and skills, and help the people to find solutions for a better life, wherever you are.
