

Lyrics "Let you go"

I've changed my mind
Anymore the one who once was kind
To someone like you, you
What I can't stand are people who do pretend
To feel the same, the same
And no matter what comes
Life carries on, our journey's long

Ref.: And I let you go
Things they change and I do so
I rather went wrong
To see where I belong
And I'll let you go yeah I'll do so
Now I am fine, I am fine without you on my mind

Started to dare and to Try cause I got tired of asking why
Why to wait longer on I won't change myself for anykind of fellow out here
Watch me disappear
And no matter what comes
Life carries on, our journey's long

Ref.: And I let you go
Things they change and I do so
I rather went wrong
To see where I belong
And I'll let you go yeah I'll do so
Now I am fine, I am fine without you on my mind

Bridge:
And in the end we will see
That everything made sense
I'll forgive those who did me wrong
Cause we'll have to die on our own

Ref.: And I let you go
Rather went wrong
I will let you go yeah and you should know
